

Application to the Capital Region Ecumenical Organization (CREO) for a Grant for a New Project Focused on Ecumenism

CREO has funds to offer grants of up to $1000 to groups seeking to start an ongoing project to strengthen ecumenism in the Capital Region. (These are not funds for a one-time event.)

Funds are available for groups of both lay and ordained individuals.

The funds can be used for ongoing projects that will broaden a community's understanding of, and participation in, ecumenical activities.

The group will be expected to contribute a portion of the project's cost out of the sponsoring organization's funds.

A group may receive only one grant for each new project.

Grant recipients must agree to report back to CREO on the use of the grant and its results.
